

EXTRA MILE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

DECLARATION OF INTERESTS

The Charity Commission recommends that all charities should hold a trustees' register of interests, indicating where they may be potential conflict of interests with other charities, organisations, companies or individuals that influences or prevents a trustee from acting in the best interest of the charity.

Furthermore, trustees are required to declare all other charities of which they are also trustees; such information is made available publicly on the Extra Mile listing on the Charity Commission website.

Please complete and return the attached form, which will be retained at the charity's registered offices and should be updated annually or as circumstances change.

Further information about managing conflicts of interest can be found on the Charity Commission website-
